

How a Bill Becomes a Law

PROCESS IN THE CHAMBER OF ORIGIN

PROCESS IN THE SECOND CHAMBER

PROCESS IF THE TWO CHAMBERS DIFFER

ROLE OF THE GOVERNOR

A bill becomes a law if the governor signs it or fails to sign or veto it within 14 days after officially receiving it. In the event of a veto, a bill becomes a law if both chambers vote to override the veto by a two-thirds majority, if one or the other does not override or if the bill dies.